Our vision...

To grow beyond its horizon of goals and innovate continuously, in order to become a hallmark of a dynamic organization, responding to its customers needs. Our management team...

Our TC team is composed by professional members who have a significant recruitment experience in various sectors. Each one is a specialist rather than a generalist in their given field. This is an important aspect for specific needs.

TC team is growing more and more and our managers try to coordinate all of us and have put together a dedicated team of skilled personnel, trained in recruitment and business development.

Executive team...

The executive team is composed by a large range of tasks coordinate by our managers. And every people in this team has a specific task linked to the Human resources profile. Being in the same structure, work hand in hand allows them to transfer all information directly and to not waste time. This is an efficient solution for us and for all of our partners. First, customers who want to recruit the right person for a specific profile. Second, candidates who want to find a right job according to his profile. Third, managers who have to report all information to our directors.
